

Assessment of Emerging Technological Topics in Finance and Blockchain

This survey aims to collect expert perceptions on the potential impact and uncertainty associated with four key technological trends in the financial sector.

For each topic, please rate:

Impact: How transformative could this topic be for the financial system?

Uncertainty: How much unpredictability exists regarding its development, implementation, or outcomes?

We also ask for a brief justification of your rating.

Estimated time to complete: 5–8 minutes

Please note: Your name and professional role will be recorded for academic analysis purposes.
